CONGRESSMAN YATES WANTS YOUR OPINION

Dear Friend:

I am writing to you to ask your views on a number of important issues facing the Congress. Your viewpoint will help me in my work for you.

I recognize the limitations of this kind of questionnaire in calling for brief responses to very complicated issues. I have provided appropriate space for you to make additional comments if you care to. I would welcome your additional thoughts.

After you have filled out the form, simply refold it tightly with my Washington address on the outside, affix stamp, and mail it. I'll let you know the results shortly. Thank you for your cooperation.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,

Sidney R. Yates

THREAT AGAINST PRESIDENT REAGAN
AND CONGRESSMAN SIDNEY R. YATES
OF ILLINOIS - EXTORTION

b6

On January 21, 1982, the Washington Field Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) was advised by [REDACTED] United States Capital Police, Washington, D.C. that Congressman Yates' Office received a threatening letter on January 20, 1982. [REDACTED] provided the FBI with a copy of the letter and envelope. A copy of the letter and envelope was then forwarded to the Chicago Division of the FBI by telecopies. On January 21, 1982, the Chicago Division of the FBI then opened an investigation under the extortion statute, Title 18, United States Code, Section 876 (3), in that a message containing a threat to kidnap or injure any person was delivered or caused to be delivered by the postal service. Subsequent investigation by Chicago at Chicago revealed the following facts:

Two subjects were developed in the above investigation. Subject number one is [REDACTED] juvenile; subject number two is [REDACTED] male juvenile. Both subjects were interviewed by Special Agents (SAs) of the FBI in the presence of their parents, where both admitted their capability in co-authoring the letter to Congressman Yates. Both stated it was done as an attempt to embarrass [REDACTED] of Chicago, Illinois. This is related to a personal conflict between the subjects and [REDACTED] over [REDACTED]. A previous interview with [REDACTED] confirmed this fact. Record checks on the subjects reveal that each one had a prior contact with the Chicago Police Department Youth Division. Both of these contacts were minor in nature and were station adjusted without formal processing or referral to the Juvenile Court System. Checks concerning [REDACTED] background

[REDACTED] however, was previously listed as a runaway on [REDACTED] with the Chicago Police Department Youth Division, which was related to the above incident and may indeed have caused it. She returned home on [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Both subjects and their parents were apprised of the seriousness of the situation and the possible consequences of their acts. All agreed they had acted irresponsible and immaturely and would not repeat any such actions in the future. Both subjects offered to write a letter of apology to Congressman Yates on their own initiative, and also offered to deliver in person an apology to the [REDACTED] residence.

b6
b7C

In view of the nature of the above incident, that there was no viable attempt to carry out the threat, and that both subjects are juveniles who appear to be penitent, Chicago Division of the FBI will not be formerly presenting the above violation to the United States Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois for prosecution.
